THE WOODEN HORSE

SYNOPSIS

IN the city of Troy ,where the people were called Trojans was a prince called Paris .He kidnapped the beautiful Greek princess called Helen and brought her back to his palace. Ulysess the Greek King with his army set sail to bring back their princess Helen. Now the city of Troy had very high strong walls all around so the Greeks could not enter into the city of Troy. Even though they fought bravely Ulysses did not give up, he thought of a cunning plan. One morning when the Trojans woke up they saw no Greek army but a very huge wooden horse on wheels. They took the wooden horse into their city. But what they did not know was Ulysses and his army was hiding in the wooden horse. When morning came there was a huge battle and the Greeks killed all the Trojans. They took their princess Helen and went back home to Greece.
