Welland Gouldsmith School

Computer Worksheet

Class-3

A GUI Operating System (Pgs 15-20)

- An operating system manages the working of a computer.
- There are two types of operating systems: CUI operating system and GUI operating system.
- Microsoft Windows is a GUI operating system.
- The Windows 7 has different parts: desktop background,icons,taskbar and the start button.

Q1. Name the following :

a) The manager of the computer.
b) In this operating system you type the commands for the computer.
c) In this operating system you use a mouse and keyboard to give commands.
d) This operating system uses rectangular areas to display information.
e) The picture in the background of the desktop.
f) A location where all the contents of a computer are stored.

Q2. True or False:

a) The long bar seen at the bottom of the desktop is called the icon.
b) The start button is located at the bottom –left corner of the taskbar.
c) To select an Icon , click on it.
d) You can use the Recycle Bin to shut down a computer.
e) The Bash shell is a CUI operating system.

Q3. Answer the following question:

a) What does an Operating System do?
b) What are the types of Operating System?
c) Name the different version of Windows which have been released.
d) Name some components that we see on the desktop.
e) What is an Icon?
f) What is Recycle Bin ?
g) What do you mean by sorting desktop?