

Welland Gouldsmith School

Geography Worksheet

Class-3

The Earth – How it looks

- The model of the Earth is called a globe.
- The drawing of the Earth on a flat surface is called a map.
- The surface of the Earth is made-up of land and water.
- The Earth has four main oceans and seven continents.
- The four main directions are North, South, East and West.
- Compass helps us to locate directions.

Q1. Name the following:

- a) A model of the Earth.
- b) The topmost point of the Earth.
- c) The bottom most point of the Earth.
- d) Large parts of the land on the Earth.
- e) Largest Continent.
- f) Smallest Continent.
- g) Large bodies of water on the Earth.
- h) Ocean named after our country – India.
- i) Largest ocean on the Earth.
- j) A drawing of the Earth on a flat surface.
- k) A book of maps.
- l) Four main directions.
- m) An instrument which helps to know the directions.

Q2. Fill in the blanks:

- a) The ____ parts show the water bodies.
- b) The ____ on the Earth is ____ into many large parts.
- c) The smaller bodies of water are called ____, ____ and ____ .
- d) A ____ which shows the whole Earth is called a ____ map.
- e) A map can be drawn for a ____, a ____ or a ____ .
- f) ____ helps to locate directions.

Q3. Answer the following questions:

- a) What is the differences between a globe and a map?
- b) What is a continent?
- c) Name the 7 continents.
- d) What is an ocean?
- e) Name the 4 oceans.
- f) How are the 4 main directions represented on the map?
- g) What is a compass used for?

Q4. Assignments to be done in the text book –Pg 15- Ex A,C , Pg-16- Ex E, F,G.