

Welland Gouldsmith School
History Worksheet
Class III

I Love My Family

There are different kinds of families- nuclear, joint and single-parent. In some families, both parents go out to work. In some, one parent works from home. In some other families, one parent goes out to work and the other stays at home to take care of the family members. A family grows and changes when there is a marriage in a family or when a baby is born into a family.

A) Fill in the blanks.

- 1) Three generations of a family live together in the same house is called a _____ family.
- 2) _____ parents go out to work.
- 3) _____ means the people who are born or living at about the same time.
- 4) Brothers and sisters are called _____.

B) Answer the following questions.

- 1) What is a nuclear family?
- 2) What is a family tree?
- 3) Explain how a family grows and changes with time.
- 4) What is a joint family?

C) Match the following.

- | | |
|--------------|-----------------------|
| 1) sibling | a) uncle and aunt |
| 2) occasion | b) bridegroom |
| 3) relatives | c) brother and sister |
| 4) bride | d) marriage |

D) Activity.

➤ Make a family tree of your family using pictures.

- Assignment to be done in the text- “SOCIAL STUDIES” page number 10 exercise B.