

Welland Gouldsmith School

Class: VII

Subject: Computers

Chapter: Hardware Components of a Computer

A computer system has two components: hardware and software. Hardware components are physical parts that can be seen and touched. Example: CPU, Monitor, Keyboard etc.

Software components are the programs that instruct a computer to do different tasks. Both hardware and software are needed for a computer system to work properly.

(a) Give the full form of:

1) VDU: _____

2) SMPS: _____

3) ALU: _____

4) CD-RW: _____

(b) Give one point of difference between:

1)	Sound card	Graphic card
2)	Internal ports	External ports

(c) Define the following:

1) Network interface card: _____

2) Chip: _____

3) Modem: _____

4) Circuit: _____

d) Briefly answer the questions:

1) State the function of a keyboard:

2) Write a short notes on printers. Name the different types of printers.
